1 1. Third-Party Confidential Information may be designated confidential by any third 2 party in response to a subpoena or other applicable process, and thereby made subject to the 3 provisions of this Order.

4 2. A designation that information is confidential shall constitute a representation by the 5 designating party, in good faith and after careful determination, that the information so designated 6 is eligible for such designation pursuant to Paragraph 1.

7 3. Third-Party Confidential Information shall be secured by any receiving party in such 8 a manner as to minimize the possibility of unintentional disclosure, including the physical storage
9 thereof in a secure area or law office, the electronic storage thereof on a password-protected
10 computer or system which may be accessed only by persons qualified to have access to Third-Party
11 Confidential Information pursuant to the terms of this Order, and the shipment thereof only to other 12 qualified persons by a trackable method with restricted delivery to such qualified persons.

13 4. Third-Party Confidential Information shall not be used for any purpose by the 14 receiving party except for purposes in connection with this litigation.

15 5. A party shall not disclose Third-Party Confidential Information to any person, except 16 the following persons:

17 (a) Defendants, including the executives or other personnel of Defendants who 18 are participants with respect to policy decisions for the trial or pretrial preparations with reference 19 to this action and any other personnel of Defendants having a good-faith, reasonable need for 20 obtaining access to Third-Party Confidential Information;

21 (b) FTC Commissioners and other employees of the FTC (including consultants 22 not covered under Subparagraph 5(c) below), the parties' respective counsel of record in this action,

26 (c) The independent experts or consultants retained or consulted by the parties 27 in this action, including the employees of such experts or consultants who are assigned to assist such 28 experts or consultants;

1 (d) Any person who is a witness or witness's counsel at deposition or trial where 2 the Third-Party Confidential Information is reasonably related to the testimony of such witness, and 3 court reporters and persons preparing transcripts of testimony;

4 (e) The Court and related officials involved in this litigation or any other 5 proceeding in which Third-Party Confidential Information is used, including judges, magistrates, 6 commissioners, referees, jurors, and other personnel of the Court; provided, however, that 7 Third-Party Confidential Information shall be lodged or filed with the Court in accordance with the 8 procedures for filing under seal as described in Paragraph 8 below; and

9 (f) Any person designated by the Court in the interest of justice, upon such terms 10 as the Court deems proper, provided that, nothing in this Order shall impose any restrictions on the 11 disclosure of Third-Party Confidential Information by the FTC as provided by: (1) Sections 4.11(a)
12 to (e) of the FTC's Rules of Practice and any cases construing them; (2) Sections 6(f) and 21 of the 13 Federal Trade Commission Act and any cases construing them; and (3) any other legal obligation
14 imposed upon the FTC.

15 6. Prior to disclosing Third-Party Confidential Information to any person listed in 16 Subparagraph 5(c), the receiving party shall:

17 (a) provide such person with a copy of this Order; and

18 (b) obtain from such person a signed statement in the form attached hereto as 6 described in that rule.

7 9. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prejudice any party's right to use

13 Third-Party Confidential Information from the recipients thereof, and attempting to secure the 14 agreement of the recipients not to further disseminate the Third-Party Confidential Information in 15 any form.

16 11. At the time that any consultant, expert, or other person retained to assist counsel in

19 destruction. Furthermore, within thirty days after the completion of this litigation Third-Party
20 Confidential Information shall be collected by counsel for the receiving party and either destroyed
21 or returned to the party who produced the materials. For purposes of this Order, this action shall be
